

Rejecting American Military Involvement in Syria

WHEREAS, the conflict in Syria is a civil war, with atrocities being committed by both sides, and with a barbaric government opposing a rebel force that includes many Al-Qaeda terrorists; and

WHEREAS, there is no definitive evidence to connect the chemical weapons attack to one of the sides involved in the civil war; and

WHEREAS, neither the country of Syria, nor its military, nor its people have shown a direct threat to the security of the United States; and

WHEREAS, there is a true threat due to American involvement that the conflict may expand to other nations, such as our allies Israel and Jordan, and may bring action against us by Iran; and

WHEREAS, the President has presented no clear objective or plan despite multiple speeches and has given ample time to Syria to prepare for any possible American attack; and

WHEREAS, the American people in bipartisan agreement have strongly voiced their rejection of any move towards war by our President and Congress;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Republican Party of Texas rejects proposals to entangle American forces in the Syrian civil war; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Congressional delegation from Texas and to GOP organizations inside and outside of Texas as the Chairman deems appropriate.

Passed by the State Republican Executive Committee on September 29, 2013