The Heinzman's have lived in Mansfield for 10 years with their 2 daughters Sara and Leah. Both Gregg and Sherri have served on numerous Christian missions and evangelistic non-profit organizations. They have been actively involved in their church by leading a discipleship bible study in their home since 2001. The Heinzman's have successfully home schooled their children since 1998. Gregg has earned his degree in Management Information Systems from Texas Tech. He works as a business analyst for a financial institution in Ft. Worth. Gregg is starting his second year in Bible Study Fellowship (BSF). Currently he is an AWANA leader.

Sherri has served as a missionary, youth and children's pastor. She currently serves the home school community in leadership roles as political officer, membership, coop director, and advisor to new home school families. Her passion for the unborn began at home and later she worked with a home for unwed mothers in Tyler Texas. This was the most rewarding work seeing women make the choice for life. Sherri was first involved in the reelection campaign of President Ronald Reagan in Tyler Texas. Since marrying Gregg in 1992, she has worked with many Republican candidates.

Gregg and Sherrri's passion is to help conservative Christians to have a voice in the community, state, and the nation. Politically it is our responsibility to serve in all forms of government. As Charles Finney has said:

"The Church must take right ground in regards to politics... God cannot sustain this free and blessed country, which we love and pray for, unless the Church will take right ground. Politics are a part of a religion in such a country as this, and Christians must do their duty to their country as a part of their duty to God... God will bless or curse this nation according to the course Christians take in politics."
